

York officials said city will join study on regionalization

Daily Record/Sunday News

Article Last Updated: 07/16/2008 03:25:19 PM EDT

York City Council members told YorkCounts representatives that the city will participate in a study on police regionalization.

The council took an informal vote at its Tuesday meeting after a presentation by Carl Anderson, co-chairman of the YorkCounts Public Safety Committee. A resolution indicating the city's willingness to participate will be voted on at council's August meeting.

Representatives from YorkCounts are meeting with officials in nearly two dozen municipalities to ask them to participate in the study.

Advertisement

Print Powered By  FormatDynamics™